The Taming of the Shrew tells the tale of the sharp-tongued Kate, who must marry before her younger sister, Bianca, is allowed to find a suitor. Undaunted by her waspish reputation, Petruccio attempts to woo the not-so-fair maiden, but is faced with a tirade of poisonous insults. Samantha Spiro stars as cantankerous Kate, capable of knocking a grown man down with her fist. With a stellar supporting cast, the production is a triumph, thanks to its 'riotous mixture of verbal dexterity and slapstick' (The Daily Telegraph).

- Broadcast into cinemas worldwide in June 2013
- One of the Globe's finest & most acclaimed productions

What the press said:

“Toby Frow's production of Shakespeare's 'The Taming of the Shrew' is intelligent and energetic,” The Telegraph
